

WHEREAS, Jim Marking has been a steady and strong influence on hundreds of young student-athletes as a teacher, coach and adviser; and,

WHEREAS, He has been an outstanding basketball coach at Hayti High School and Watertown High School, compiling an enviable record of 195 wins and only 48 losses; and,

WHEREAS, He is the only coach in South Dakota high school basketball history to ever win both a State "B" and State "A" basketball championship; and,

WHEREAS, He helped bring South Dakota State University into the national basketball limelight and led the Jackrabbits to a 148 win, 80 loss record in nine years; and,

WHEREAS, He led SDSU to three consecutive North Central Conference championships and four total titles and five post-season playoff berths in six years:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, December 21, 1974, as

JIM MARKING DAY

and respectfully invite the citizens of this State to pay tribute to this very successful and dedicated South Dakotan.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 17th day of December,
in the Year of Our Lord,
